PURPOSE

Regis is committed to high levels of integrity and ethical standards in all our business practices and interactions with the people we serve.

Our Code of Conduct (the Regis Way) outlines how we expect our People to behave and conduct business in accordance with current community, legislative, practice and company standards.

We regularly monitor and test our policies under the Regis Way to ensure our commitments remain relevant, effective and consistent with our stakeholders' expectations.

While the Regis Way is designed to ensure we deliver on our commitment to corporate responsibility and sustainable business practice, it does not create any rights in any Regis People, residents/clients and their representatives, suppliers, competitors, shareholders or any other person or entity.

STAFF THIS POLICY APPLIES TO

All Regis People must comply with the Regis Way.

The Regis Way applies to all business activities and interactions with suppliers, contractors, residents, clients and their representatives, shareholders, volunteers and employees.

1.2. How the Regis Way interacts with other company policies and process

The Regis Way is underpinned by our Purpose, Values and Behaviours and should be read in conjunction with our other policies which are accessible via the Regis intranet and website.

We continually review our policies and processes to ensure compliance with corporate governance and legislative requirements. Regis' People are notified of any material changes to the policies and processes via the Regis intranet.

2. THE REGIS WAY AND YOU

2.1. How do I apply it?

We all must conduct ourselves in accordance with the Regis Way and stop or prevent actions or behaviour that could harm our people, our residents and clients, our communities, our business, or our reputation.

If situations arise which are not specially covered by the Regis Way or any other policy, you should ask yourself whether your action or decision is consistent with the Regis Way, such as:

- is this behaviour, decision or action (including inaction) lawful and ethical?
- am I authorised to make this decision or take this action?
- is this decision/behaviour a reasonable management action for the efficient running of a business?
- is this decision/behaviour consistent with our Values?
- would I feel okay if my decision/behaviour was reported in the media?
- how would I like it if someone treated me this way?
- what would happen if everybody took this course of action?
- have I really thought through my decision or behaviour and the impact it may have on my character, people in the Regis community and the reputation of Regis?
- would I still take the same action if it was my business, my money, or my time?

Similarly, if you believe that acting in accordance with the Regis Way in a particular situation would be damaging to any member of the Regis Community, you must seek clarification from your Manager.

2.2. Leadership commitment

Our Board, executive and management team are responsible for:

- acting in accordance with the law and the Regis Way alongside all other Regis People;
- taking reasonable management action that is required for the efficient operation of our business and delivery of care to our residents and clients; and
- making sure that our people understand and comply with the Regis Way.

2.3. What happens if there is a breach?

Failure to comply with the Regis Way may result in disciplinary action in accordance with our Managing Misconduct Policy, up to and including termination of employment or engagement.

Regis reserves the right to inform the appropriate authorities where it is considered that there has been criminal activity or a suspected breach of the law.

2.4. Who to speak to if you have questions

If you have any questions regarding the Regis Way or any of our policies at any time, you should contact your Manager at first instance.

3. DELIVERING CARE AND SERVICE TO OUR RESIDENTS AND CLIENTS

We must always adhere to the Aged Care Code of Conduct, the NDIS Code of Conduct and any other relevant legislation.

In addition to these requirements, and the Regis Strategic Quality and Clinical Governance Framework, the following principles should be followed in our interactions with our residents and clients to ensure they experience the best possible care, support and services.

Guiding Principle	What it means to us	What we do, every day
We genuinely care	Regardless of our role, we really care: about the Regis Community - our residents, clients and their loved ones, team members and our work. We provide care, support and services in a professional, safe and competent manner, with care and skill. We are consistent in our efforts, and work to the best of our ability. We concentrate all our efforts on making valuable contributions. We are committed to keeping the Regis Community safe.	We follow our Freedom from Abuse Policy and KeepSafe from Behaviours of Concern Policy and take all reasonable steps to ensure residents and clients are protected from all forms of violence, discrimination, exploitation, neglect and abuse and sexual misconduct, and that every person in our care is safe and treated with dignity and respect. We act with integrity, honesty and transparency. We willingly lend a helping hand to colleagues and promptly take steps to raise concerns about matters that may impact the quality and safety of care.
We unite to deliver great care and service	We value diversity and recognise our residents, clients and their families come from diverse backgrounds and cultures, which may be different to our own. We strive to understand their needs, to deliver great service. We recognise that meeting their needs is the purpose of our work. We welcome new team members, and help them learn. We understand that a co-operative team can achieve 'more'.	Our resident and client Inclusivity Policy Statement outlines our commitment to treating its resident and clients with dignity and respect, by valuing their identity, culture and diversity. We work co-operatively with team members of all backgrounds. We keep our promises, are reliable and do what we say we will do. We notice and appreciate the effort of others, and say thank you.
We are lifelong learners	We recognise that to keep delivering high quality care and services we must maintain contemporary job skills and keep current with changing legislation or industry practices.	We willingly attend and participate in required training and learning activities. We are enthusiastic about learning new skills and ways of working. We listen to, seek out, offer and accept constructive feedback, to learn and keep on improving.

We work in our residents and client's homes, they don't live in our workplace	We strive to create a home like environment. We recognise and respect our residents and client's rights to freedom of expression, self-determination and decision-making in accordance with applicable laws and conventions. Every day, we all add value to our residents and client's lives. If we work in a support role, we ensure we understand and meet the needs of the many team members who directly service our residents and clients.	We always greet residents and clients and their families with a warm hello and in the way they like to be greeted, which may be different to our own customs. We make genuine efforts to know our residents and clients as individuals. Our conversations and actions are appropriate to working in someone else's 'home'. We are warm, gentle and respectful towards our residents and client's.
We respect and promote privacy, dignity and confidentiality	We act with respect for the dignity and privacy of our people. We recognise that our work brings access to confidential and personal information concerning residents, clients and families and respect the importance of privacy. We understand the responsibility that access brings and are committed to using such information legally and with integrity.	We do not gossip and do not share personnel information carelessly, maliciously or in a way that could harm others or our reputation. We do not share the personal details or images of residents or clients without permission, or unless required under applicable legislation.
Complaints, compliments and feedback are an opportunity to keep on improving	We take complaints and feedback seriously and promptly act on matters concerning the quality of care. Complaints are an opportunity to understand another point of view and to make changes. Sharing compliments ensures we show appreciation for the efforts of our people and benefits others to continually improve our service.	We listen to concerns with an open mind. We respond to complaints effectively and promptly, so the matter is dealt with and resolved respectfully. We escalate complaints appropriately. We participate in investigations with an open mind. We do not make excuses. We respond to queries appropriately and strive to ensure all our residents and clients are satisfied with our behaviour, responsiveness and work quality.

4. CONDUCTING OUR BUSINESS

4.1. We comply with laws, regulations and Regis policies / procedures

You should be aware of, and comply with, your obligations under all laws, regulations and our policies and procedures relating to your work.

4.2. We meet all requirements related to fair trading and dealing in Regis securities

We are committed to upholding fair and ethical securities trading practices, complying with all laws and avoid any conflicts of interest. Our people must not engage in insider trading of Regis' securities.

Through our Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, we aim to ensure equal treatment for all our people, regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, religion, age, national origin, or ancestry, physical or mental disability or sexual orientation.

Our Diversity Policy enshrines our commitment to ensuring diversity and inclusion in our workforce. Our diversity makes us stronger and we welcome different views from all our people as this helps to improve the quality of our services.

5.3. We promote workplace health and safety

We are committed to maintaining a healthy and safe working environment for all Regis People. Our goal is to ensure everyone in our Circle of Care is physically and psychologically safe and well.

The Foundation of Care	Objective
Communicate safety to the team	Through consultation with our Circle of Care Committees our Safety and Wellbeing messages keep our teams safe and engaged.
Act safely and with wellbeing in mind	To enable Managers and Employees to promote a culture of injury prevention and wellbeing through positive safety behaviours and actions within their Circle of Care.
Reduce risks	To identify, assess and manage risks within our Circle of Care to minimise the likelihood and consequences of harm.
Environment and equipment safe and available	To ensure our physical working environment is safe, and teams are equipped with the right tools and equipment to keep their Circle of Care safe.

Preserving and enhancing our Circle of Care is an integral part of how we operate in Regis. We have policies, procedures, and standards across our business which set out our expectations.

All Regis People must follow the workplace safety and security policies and procedures, and must report any actual or potential hazards. By doing this, we can ensure that we protect ourselves, fellow Regis People, our residents and clients, visitors and our business.

5.4. We ensure we are fit for work free from the effects of alcohol or drugs

You must not perform any work for Regis if you are under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs or any substance that could affect you performing your job safely or effectively.

You must not possess, use or distribute illegal substances in the workplace.

On limited occasions, such as a celebration for a resident or client held in the workplace, alcohol may be consumed, but only if authorised and appropriately supervised. Otherwise, you must not possess, consume or distribute alcohol in the workplace.

For Regis People, our workplaces are smoke-free environments, and we expect Regis People comply with this policy.
